This grand collection of psalms is a treasured hymnbook inviting and expressing the people's praise to their sovereign God. Here is also a prayerbook, voicing the needs for individuals and the community in times of trouble. Finally, the book of Psalms serves as an instruction book, as indicated in the opening psalm's invitation to "meditate day and night" on the life-giving word of God's instruction for living.

The book of Leviticus has as its theme the HOLINESS of God (“Be holy because I am holy”—11⁴⁵; 19²; 20²⁶). While Exodus gave the directions for building the tabernacle, Leviticus gives directions for worship in it. It therefore describes how the holy God must be worshipped through animal sacrifice (chs. 1-7). It notes the appointment of a high priesthood to lead the nation’s worship (chs. 8-10). It gives instructions for eliminating the impurities of sin from the people and the tabernacle (chs. 11-16). It concludes by explaining the moral demands of holiness in everyday life (chs. 17-27).

Deuteronomy has had greater consequences for human history than any other single book. It is the first to establish universal education and health for all members of a nation and fixes the only welfare system that was in existence in ancient times. It formulates the greatest command of all Scripture: to love God (6:5). Its repeated call to “remember” and apply God’s teaching had a profound influence on Jesus who quoted Deuteronomy more often than any other book, especially during his temptation (Luke 4:1-13).

This grand collection of psalms is a treasured hymnbook inviting and expressing the people's praise to their sovereign God. Here is also a prayerbook, voicing the needs fo individuals and the community in times of trouble. Finally, the book of Psalms serves as an instruction book, as indicated in the opening psalm's invitation to "meditate day and night" on the life-giving word of God's instruction for living.

“In the sacred books, the Father who is in heaven meets His children with great love and speaks with them; and the force and power in the word of God is so great that it stands as the support and energy of the Church, the strength of faith for her sons [and daughters], the food of the soul, the pure and everlasting source of spiritual life.” (Vatican II)
